The small town of Turre is located in the foothills of the Sierra Cabrera in the valley of the Rio Aguas. Dating back to the times of the Moors today's Turre is a bustling little market town. The labyrinth of streets in the old town are dotted with tapas bars and in the main square the natural fountain supplies drinking water to visitors all year round while the main thoroughfares offer a variety of shops, bars and restaurants that cater for all tastes and ages. Friday's are market days when local produce, amongst other items, is abundantly available.

Situated only an hours drive from Almeria international airport and 2 to 2.5 hour drive to the airports of Murcia and Alicante. Turre has excellent motorway access.
