This imposing property is set on the main plaza of the sleepy village of Los Cerricos.

The house is set over two floors, the ground level being habitable but in need of some TLC. On this level the front door opens into a porchway with glazed doors opening into a hallway from which the lounge, dining room, basic fitted kitchen, two bedrooms and bathroom are accessed. There is also a large garage on this level.

On the first floor which is more or less all in need of renovation there are six rooms. This property could be converted to create additional bedrooms and bathrooms and would make a nice village B&B.

The village only has a few bars that also serve food and a village school. It is serviced by a good range of mobile shops and the towns of Oria and Chirivel are within 15 minutes drive of the town.

Access to the A92N is good with its links to Velez Rubio, Baza, Granada, Lorca and the coast.
